

NZS 6806 – Noise barrier cross-sections

These examples are graphical output from acoustics modelling software that illustrates the relationship between a road, noise barrier and PPFs. These figures were generated in SoundPLAN, TNM and CadnaA software. For any of the software packages there are a range of different formats in which this information can be displayed. Common acoustics software packages can also generate three-dimensional rendered views and videos of barriers.

Example 1

Example 2

Example 3

Example 4

