

Night works and detours for SH1 intersection with Taranaki St

From Sunday 31 August to Thursday 4 September, we will be undertaking night work to level and asphalt the intersection of Taranaki St with the State Highway 1 Buckle St Diversion. This will also allow work on the exit from the Memorial Park Underpass which is under construction.

Works will be noisy at times and will be undertaken on consecutive nights from 7.00pm to 5.00am.

Taranaki St

- Detours will be signposted via Webb St, Cuba St and Abel Smith St.
- Both northbound and southbound vehicles will use the detour route.
- Buses and emergency services will be escorted through the work site by traffic controllers.

Buckle St Diversion (SH1)

- Buckle Street Diversion will be reduced to a single lane.
- Vehicles can travel straight ahead to Arthur Street (SH1).
- At times turns into Taranaki St will be restricted – southbound vehicles should use Cuba St and Webb St, northbound traffic use Cuba St and Abel Smith St at those times.

Traffic management

- Local business and residential access will be maintained.
- Traffic control personnel will manage traffic and pedestrians.
- Electronic signage will warn motorists.

Please note: Dates may be rescheduled due to unforeseen circumstances or weather conditions.

ALL ROUTES WILL BE RESTORED FOR DAYTIME USE
PLEASE SEE OVERLEAF FOR A MAP OF THE NIGHTTIME DETOURS
