Who should use this form?

Use this form if you want to convert an overseas driver licence to a New Zealand driver licence.

What to bring

- Your completed application form.
- Your original overseas driver licence. This must be current or expired less than 12 months. If your overseas licence (or translation) doesn't clearly state the classes of vehicle you're licensed to drive, you may need to provide supporting evidence.
- If your licence isn't in English please also provide an original written translation from your licensing authority, embassy or consulate or an NZ Transport Agency Waka Kotahi (NZTA) approved translator.
- Evidence of identity.
You must provide either:
 - your current overseas driver licence and your current overseas passport, or
 - your New Zealand photo driver licence (can be current or expired up to 2 years), or
 - your current New Zealand passport, or
 - another combination of acceptable evidence of identity documents* detailed on Identification for driver licensing (Factsheet 20) or at www.nzta.govt.nz/identification

*If neither document has a photo, you will also need to provide a verified image (see Factsheet 20 for more information).
- Evidence that your licence is valid if:
 - your licence was issued in Afghanistan, India, Pakistan or Tonga (go to www.nzta.govt.nz/valid-evidence-non-exempt), or
 - your licence was issued in an exempt country but your evidence of identity was issued in a different country (go to www.nzta.govt.nz/valid-evidence-exempt).
- High-quality colour photocopies of all the original documents you're providing (including any translation).
- Medical certificate completed by a registered health practitioner (if applicable - see the Medical certificate section on page 2).
- Your glasses or contact lenses if you wear them for driving.
- EFTPOS, credit card or cash for paying the fees.
To check the fee go to www.nzta.govt.nz/overseas-conversion-fees

- Evidence of name change.
If you want to change the name on your driver licence or if the name on your identity documents isn't the same as the name on your licence, you'll need to provide acceptable evidence of name change. This must be an original (not a copy) of one of the following documents that was issued in New Zealand:
 - Your marriage or civil union certificate, or dissolution order.
 - Another acceptable evidence of name change document detailed on Identification for driver licensing (Factsheet 20) or at www.nzta.govt.nz/name-change

Note: if your evidence of identity and name change documents don't provide a clear link to the name currently on your driver licence, you may be required to provide additional documentation.

Where to apply

Take your completed form, all original documents AND high-quality, colour photocopies of these documents to a specialist overseas conversion site. To find your closest specialist site go to www.nzta.govt.nz/overseas-conversion-site

An agent will process your application, review your documents, take your photo* and a sample signature for your licence, check your eyesight, book any theory tests and take your payment.

*When your photo is taken you can't wear sunglasses, a hat, head coverings or anything else that might obscure your face or prevent the photo from being a good likeness. You can wear the item for religious or medical reasons if you supply a signed statement confirming this, and wearing the item doesn't prevent the photo from being a good likeness.

What happens next?

You may need to sit a theory test and/or a practical driving test. This will depend on the country your licence is from.

These countries are considered exempt countries:

- Australia
- Austria
- Belgium
- Canada
- Denmark
- Finland
- France
- Germany
- Greece
- Hong Kong
- Ireland
- Italy
- Japan
- Luxembourg
- Netherlands
- Norway
- Portugal
- South Africa
- South Korea
- Spain
- Sweden
- Switzerland
- United Kingdom
- United States of America

If the country your licence was issued in is not on this list, then it is a non-exempt country.

See page 4 for more information.

Your appointment is for:

Appointment

- Theory test
- Practical test
- You must provide acceptable photo ID when sitting the theory test. Go to www.nzta.govt.nz/test-ID for more information.
- You must present either your current photo driver licence or your current temporary driver licence with acceptable photo ID (eg Kiwi Access or 18+ card, student ID card, current or expired passport) to the person conducting the practical driving test.
- You will provide the vehicle to be used for the test. It must be covered by the highest class of licence you are applying for. If you're applying for a motorcycle licence, the motorcycle you use for a test must be a LAMS-compliant (Learner Approved Motorcycle Scheme) motorcycle.
- The vehicle you use for the test must be clean and tidy, safe and have a current vehicle licence displayed. It must have a current certificate of fitness (CoF) or warrant of fitness (WoF) displayed and meet WoF or CoF standards. The vehicle must have a current road user charges (RUC) licence displayed if applicable.
- If you're sitting your restricted licence practical test in an automatic vehicle your licence will only allow you to drive automatic vehicles.
- You must not be late for the appointment time shown or you won't be able to sit the test and may have to pay another test fee.
- If you have difficulty speaking or understanding English, refer to the Tests section on page 4

Exempt country

Exempt countries have similar driving standards to New Zealand and are exempt from some requirements to convert to a New Zealand licence.

If you're converting a car or motorcycle licence from an exempt country, you don't have to sit any theory tests.

You'll only need to sit a practical driving test if you've held your licence for less than 2 years.

However, if your licence doesn't have an issue date, you'll need to provide confirmation of the issue date from your licensing authority if you want to be exempt from the practical test.

If you're converting a truck licence (class 2-5), you'll need to sit a theory test.

You'll also have to sit a practical test if you've held your licence for less than 2 years, or your licence is from Hong Kong or South Korea.

Non-exempt country

If your licence is from a non-exempt country, you must sit a theory test and a practical test.

When you've passed the theory test, you'll get a New Zealand driver licence with a supervisor condition on it. You must have a supervisor with you at all times while driving until you've passed the practical driving test.

When you've passed the practical driving test, you'll get a New Zealand licence without a supervisor condition on it.

Tests

To prepare for the tests go to www.nzta.govt.nz/take-your-test

If you normally wear glasses or contact lenses to drive, make sure you bring them with you to the test.

Make sure you bring the right ID to the test. For more information go to www.nzta.govt.nz/test-ID

You may be able to sit your theory test in a language other than English. For more information go to www.nzta.govt.nz/theory-test

Practical tests are conducted in English. If you have difficulty speaking or understanding English you can bring an interpreter.

The testing officer may use a recording device to record your practical test. This is so we can audit testing officers and investigate complaints. If you don't want your test to be recorded, please tell the testing officer.

Changing or cancelling tests

If you need to change or cancel your test, please do it as early as possible, so someone else can take the test time.

For a theory test, go to a driver licensing agent.

For a practical test, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/online or any driver licensing agent.

If you're converting to a truck licence (class 2-5) or motorcycle licence (class 6) there are no fees to change, cancel or rebook your test.

If you're converting to a car licence (class 1), there may be a fee to change your test. If you change or cancel more than 2 full working days before the date of your test, the fees will be lower. It's free to change a practical test online if it's more than 2 full working days away.

To check the fees, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/overseas-conversion-fees

Eyesight

You'll need to pass an eyesight check at the agent.

If you don't pass the check, you'll need to present a satisfactory eyesight or medical certificate. The certificate must be issued by a New Zealand-registered optometrist or health practitioner, and be no more than 60 days old. You can present a certificate instead of doing the eyesight check if you prefer.

If you have sight in only one eye, or have only one eye (monocular vision) you'll need to present an eyesight certificate.

Fraudulent licences

NZTA audits applications where overseas licences are converted to New Zealand licences.

If you used a fraudulent overseas licence, or provided false or misleading information on your application, this is an offence under s44 of the Land Transport Act 1998.

You could be fined up to $10,000, and NZTA could revoke your New Zealand driver licence.

Responsibilities

Driver licences make our roads safer for everyone and prove drivers are qualified and legally entitled to be behind the wheel. You must always carry your licence with you when you drive.

Your address will be recorded on the Driver Licence Register. Please notify NZTA immediately if your address changes.

If your old licence is replaced by a new version, you must surrender the old version under s30 of the Land Transport Act 1998.

More information

This form is a general guide only. It doesn't replace legal advice, and your exact requirements depend on legislation.

For more information about overseas conversions, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/overseas-conversion

Email address

Giving us your email is optional. By giving us your email, you agree that NZTA may communicate with you by that email address. This includes application updates, asking for feedback, reminders and formal notices. For a full list of how we might use your email go to www.nzta.govt.nz/email-use or ask the agent. We recommend using an email address that's unique to you, so only you can see information we send you.

Privacy information

The information requested is required for NZTA (and its agents) to process your application for a driver licence, to produce your photo driver licence card, and to maintain the Driver Licence Register. Collection of this information is required by part 3 of the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Rule 1999.

Your photo will be captured for the purpose of printing it onto your driver licence card. Your photo may also be used by the Department of Internal Affairs, Department of Corrections, Ministry of Justice, Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment (Immigration), New Zealand Customs Service, and the New Zealand Police for the purposes of identity verification and law enforcement under section 200 of the Land Transport Act 1998, or for one of the purposes outlined in part 7 of the Privacy Act 2020. Your photo may therefore be disclosed to one of these agencies, for one of these purposes.

NZTA (and its agents) will hold, store, use, and disclose any personal information collected on this form in accordance with the Land Transport Act 1998 and the Privacy Act 2020 (part 7, in particular, which authorises the disclosure of this information in certain circumstances). NZTA (and its agents) may also use some of these particulars to provide you with information relating to driver licensing and driving, or to contact you for feedback on our services.

To assist in keeping the Electoral Roll up-to-date, the Electoral Enrolment Centre operates an authorised information matching programme with NZTA under s263B of the Electoral Act 1993.

To keep the Driver Licence Register up-to-date NZTA also operates an authorised information matching programme with Births, Deaths and Marriages. Please refer to the Privacy section of our website for more information.

You're entitled to access, and request the correction of, any readily retrievable personal information held about you by NZTA. You can do so by writing to us at Private Bag 11777, Palmerston North 4442 or by emailing us at info@nzta.govt.nz
