Proof of name change

If you want to change the name on your driver licence or if the name on your identity documents isn't the same as the name on your licence, you'll need to provide acceptable evidence of name change. This must be an original (not a copy) of one of the following documents issued in New Zealand:

- your marriage or civil union certificate
- your copy of particulars of marriage or civil union
- your dissolution of marriage or civil union order
- a certificate of annulment
- a deed poll certificate, change of name certificate, or birth certificate showing both names
- a statutory declaration issued by Births, Deaths and Marriages confirming the name change.

Note: if your evidence of identity and name change documents don't provide a clear link to the name currently on your driver licence, you may be required to provide additional documentation.

Responsibilities

Driver licences make our roads safer for everyone and prove drivers are qualified and legally entitled to be behind the wheel. You must always carry your licence with you when you drive.

Your address will be recorded on the Driver Licence Register. Please notify NZ Transport Agency Waka Kotahi (NZTA) immediately if your address changes.

If your old licence is replaced by a new version, you must surrender the old version under s30 of the Land Transport Act 1998.

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to court action. You could lose your licence or get a fine.

More information

This form is a general guide only. It doesn't replace legal advice, and your exact requirements depend on legislation.

For more information about driver licences and tests go to www.nzta.govt.nz/licence

Changing or cancelling

If you need to change or cancel your test, please do it as early as possible, so someone else can take the test time.

For a theory test, go to a driver licensing agent.

For a practical test, go to www.nzta.govt.nz/online or an agent.

If you're applying for a truck licence (class 2-5) or motorcycle licence (class 6) or renewing your licence, there are no fees to change, cancel or rebook your test.

If you're applying for a car licence (class 1), you may need to pay fees to change or rebook your test. If you change or cancel your test more than 2 full working days in advance, the fee you pay will be lower. It's free to change a practical test online if it's more than 2 full working days away. To check the fees go to www.nzta.govt.nz/test-fees
