More information

Waka Kotahi has a range of factsheets which give more information on a wide range of driver licensing topics. These are available on our website at www.nzta.govt.nz/factsheets.

Overseas travel by New Zealand licence holders (Factsheet 65) contains information for New Zealand licence holders travelling or living overseas.

We use our forms and factsheets to provide useful, common-sense advice and information in a concise format. They can't cover all aspects of a topic and shouldn't be used instead of authoritative legal documents or legal advice.

What to include

- Your completed application form. This must be the original form you have printed and completed. Faxes, photocopies or scans of the form are not acceptable.
- The replacement licence fee of NZ$38.20. You can pay by credit card over the phone by calling +64 6 953 6270 from 8am-5.30pm Monday to Friday New Zealand time. We'll give you a reference number to write on this form.
- A certified true copy* of your evidence of identity (please don't send the original). This must be in colour, and can be either:
 - your New Zealand photo driver licence (which can be current or expired up to two years), or
 - your current New Zealand passport, or
 - a combination of acceptable evidence of identity documents detailed on Identification for driver licensing (Factsheet 20).
If neither document has a photo, you'll also need to provide a verified image (see Factsheet 20 for more information).

*You must provide certified copies of your evidence of identity or name change. Copies of your identification may be certified by a:

- lawyer,
- solicitor,
- notary public,
- court registrar,
- embassy official,
- justice of the peace, or
- police officer.

Please ensure that the person certifying the documents clearly indicates the capacity in which they're acting. This is usually done by having the stamp/seal of the certifying officer/organisation stamped on the copy.

Please don't send the original of valuable or important documents.

- Evidence of name change.
If you want to change the name on your driver licence, or if the name on your identity documents isn't the same as the name on your licence, you'll need to provide acceptable evidence of name change. This must be a certified true copy* of one of the following issued in New Zealand:
 - your marriage or civil union certificate
 - copy of particulars of marriage or civil union
 - your dissolution of marriage or civil union order
 - a certificate of annulment
 - a deed poll certificate, change of name certificate, or birth certificate showing both names
 - a statutory declaration issued by Births, Deaths and Marriages confirming the name change.

Note: if your evidence of identity and name change documents do not provide a clear link to the name currently on your driver licence, you may be required to provide additional documentation.

Warning

It's an offence to supply false or misleading information and may lead to court action. The consequences can include losing your licence and/or paying a fine.

If you don't supply all relevant information your application may be delayed or declined.

Name change

Tick the 'yes' box if your name has changed.
